The Eleventh Annual Meeting of the Mid-South Educational Research Association will convene on Wednesday, November 10, at 8:00 a.m. with registration in the lobby of the International Hotel in New Orleans, Louisiana. The 1982 conference will adjourn at noon on Friday, November 12. This year's program includes forty-five discussion sessions, eleven symposia, ten featured sessions, three training sessions, and five display sessions. All meetings will be held at the International Hotel.

The keynote speaker for the 1982 conference will be Dr. Ellis Page, Professor, Educational Psychology and Research, Duke University. His topic will be "Private Schools, Public Controversy, and Causal Research." The presentation will be made at 1:00 p.m. on Thursday, November 11. Dr. Page will also be available for a conversation hour from 5:00-6:00 p.m. on Thursday.

The annual business meeting will be held on Thursday at 6:00 p.m. in the Israel Room. James McLean, President of MSERA, will preside. The election of Officers and Board Members for 1983 and the announcement of the Outstanding Paper Award will highlight the meeting.

The wine and cheese party will be held on Wednesday at 6:00 p.m. in the Florentine Ballroom.

All attendees are expected to register for the conference. The registration fee is $20 and can be paid at registration tables in the lobby of the International Hotel. Badges should be worn at program sessions.
